Fresh Loans to Farmers for Agricultural Activities

3397. DR. DASARI NARAYANA RAO: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state : (a) whether Government/ RBI have advised the Banks not to recover either principal or interest from the affected farmers for a certain period in drought affected areas of the country particularly in Andhra Pradesh;

(b) if so, the details thereof; if not, the reasons therefor;

(c) whether banks were also directed to give fresh loans to the farmers to start agricultural activities in such areas; and

(d) if so, the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL) : (a) to (d) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) had issued standing guidelines to banks in August, 1984 to be followed by them for providing relief in areas affected by natural calamities such as floods, droughts, cyclones, etc. without waiting for instructions from RBI each time. These guidelines envisage, inter-alia, conversion of short-term production loans into medium-term loans, rescheduling/postponement of existing term loan instalments; provision of additional need-based crop loans/working capital, relaxation in security and margin norms, etc. These guidelines were further modified in June, 1998 with a view to allow more discretion to banks to decide upon the quantum of relief assistance to be provided to the affected farmers. The modified guidelines, inter-alia, permit banks to convert/ reschedule loans from 3 to 9 years depending upon the successive crop failure/intensity of damage to crops, grant fresh crop loans to affected farmers; convert principal as well as interest due on the existing loans; grant consumption loans, not to treat portion of converted/rescheduled loans as Non-Performing Assets, not to compound interest in respect of loans converted/rescheduled, etc.
